delivery time and shipping

Delivery times

Configurable PCs and notebooks:
The delivery time for systems that you have configured to your needs will be ready within 4-7 business days unless otherwise stated.

Finished systems:
The delivery time for non-configurable systems or accessories will be 1-3 business days unless otherwise stated.

The current status of your order can be tracked at any time in your customer account. In addition, we will automatically inform you by e-mail if the status of your order changes.
As soon as the package is handed over to DHL, you will also receive the package number.
